Matthew 6:33-34 NLT

Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and He will give you everything you need (He will meet all of your needs).

Reflect

What does it mean to seek the Kingdom of God above all else?

What does it mean to live righteously?

If you truly seek to do these, what does God promise?

How are “needs” different from “desires?” Why is this important to consider when interpreting this verse?
